Charleston County Councilwoman Anna Johnson's March 27 Round Table Meeting: Coastal Community Foundation and the Center of Heirs Property Preservation

Charleston County Councilwoman Anna B. Johnson of District 8 will hold her monthly round table discussion on Wednesday, March 27. The meetings normally are held at 12:30 p.m. on the fourth Wednesday of every month at the John's Island Regional Library located at 3531 Maybank Highway on Johns Island.

Our guest speakers this month:

- Darrin Goss, President & CEO of Coastal Community Foundation — The Coastal Community Foundation, founded in 1974, is deeply rooted in the community and helps to create vibrant communities by uniting people and investing resources. They are also a public grant making organization connecting Lowcountry individuals, family, and business donors with the full range of charitable and nonprofit organizations.
- Renee Gregory, Director of Legal Services for the Center of Heirs Property Preservation—This non-profit organization protects heirs' property and promotes its sustainable use to provide increased economic benefit to historically under-served families. They offer legal education and direct legal services to help families reach agreement, clear title to family land and probate estates as well as providing one-hour free, legal consultation and Free Simple Wills Clinics.

"My purpose for holding these monthly meetings is to share information about County-related issues and to listen to citizens' concerns," Johnson said. "Each month, different speakers are invited to address topics of interest as expressed by the public."

Citizens do not need to register in advance for the round table meetings. For more information or to provide ideas for upcoming topics, contact Charleston County Councilmember Anna B. Johnson:
